THANK YOU!

Thank you to the members and staff of Chesapeake Bay Golf Club, who generously supported the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation's 2011 Renaissance Ball, held May 7 at the Hyatt Regency at Penn's Landing in Philadelphia. It was a wonderful evening, and I was honored to receive the Philadelphia/Delaware Valley Chapter's 2011 Man of the Year Award.

CCFA is an organization close to my heart, as I struggled with a debilitating case of ulcerative colitis for many years prior to having my colon removed. CCFA provided me with needed guidance and support during my illness, surgery and recovery.

Again, thank you for your support.

Andy

CONGRATULATIONS!

Andy Barbin Receives Awards!

Andy Barbin has been named the PGA Philadelphia Section's 2010 Golf Professional of the Year. This award is the highest honor for a PGA golf Professional to received in their section, and is awarded for leadership in the golf profession and in the section.

Also, Andy was named a 2010 National U.S. Kids Golf Top 50 Kids Teacher, selected for exemplary dedication to the growth and development of kids golf.

LADIES INDIVIDUAL GOLF LEAGUE

Chesapeake Bay Golf Club is proud to announce the addition of the 2011 Chesapeake Bay Golf Club Ladies League. This league will be individual using the Chicago format and is open to the public and ladies of all skill levels. There will be 10 weeks of play. Competition will be from June through August, with a shotgun start every Monday at 5:30 pm. The courses will alternate weekly between North East and Rising Sun. The registration fee is $35 per individual.
